

JALT

The Japan Association for Language Teaching invites you to subscribe to a selection of JALT Publications called

The JALT Special Overseas Sampler

A one-year Sampler includes:

*one issue of The Language Teacher, JALT's monthly publication, filled with articles, reviews, teaching tips, job announcements, and more.

The Language Teacher News Supplement*, published annually, containing a directory of over 300 JALT local and national officers.

*'Pre-Conference News Supplement,' a preview of the Annual JALT International Conference on Language Teaching/Learning. The 21st conference will be held November 2-5, 1995 in Nagoya, Japan. Conference information and preregistration forms are included. Over 2,000 people from Japan and abroad are expected to attend. With over 200 presentations to choose from and an extensive Educational Materials Exposition, JALT 95 will be well worth a trip to Japan.

*'Call for Papers' for the 1996 Annual JALT International Conference on Language Teaching/Learning, to be held November 1-4, 1996 in Hiroshima, Japan.

To receive the Special Overseas Sampler purchase an international postal money order for 1,000 yen (that 's about US$10.00) made payable to JALT. Send it, along with your name, complete mailing address, contact phone/fax numbers to:

JALT Central Office
Glorious Tokyo #301
2-32-10, Nishinippori
Arakawa-ku, Tokyo
Japan 116

tel: +81-3-3802-7121 fax: +81-3-3802-7122

JALT is a not-for-profit professional organization of nearly 4,000 members in Japan and abroad, dedicated to promoting excellence in foreign language teaching.