ERIC Clearinghouse on Languages and Linguistics Invites Papers

The ERIC Clearinghouse on Languages and Linguistics is a federally funded clearinghouse operated by the Center for Applied Linguistics, a private non-profit organization. The Clearinghouse provides a wide range of services and materials, most of them free of charge. These include two-page information digests and bibliographies, a semi-annual newsletter, a question-answering service, and computer searches of the ERIC database (for a nominal fee). Readers of the TESL Reporter are invited to submit papers, reports, curricula or other materials for inclusion in the ERIC database. Submissions should be sent to: Acquisitions Coordinator, ERIC/CLL, 118 22nd Street NW, Washington DC 20037 USA. Tel: 202-429-9292. Email: CAL@guvax.georgetown.edu
