

National Center for Research on Cultural Diversity and Second Language Learning

announces its summer institute

Teaching Linguistically and Culturally Diverse Learners: Effective Programs and Practices

to be held June 28-30, 1994 at the University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT

Professional Development Themes

- *Principles of instruction and promising practices
- *Funds of knowledge—learning from student households
- *Instructional conversations (ICs)
- *Strategies for teaching academic language through content areas

Program Features

- *Daily plenary and panel sessions
- *Research/practitioner workshops
- *Concurrent sessions
- *Two-part biliteracy institute

Featured Speakers

- Dr. Eugene Garcia, Director of OBEMLA
- Dr. Fred Genesee, 1994-95 President of TESOL
- Dr. Barry McLaughlin, Director of NCRCDSSL

For content inquiries contact: Liliana Minaya-Rowe (203) 486-5103, University of CT; Esperanza Nugent (203) 486-0279, University of CT; or Deborah Short (202) 429-9292, NCRCDSSL/Center for Applied Linguistics