

A HOST OF SOLUTIONS to a range of language teaching problems

METHODS THAT WORK John W. Oller, Jr., and Patricia Richard-Amato, Editors

This indispensable source book of ideas, techniques, and inspiration, presents a dazzling array of effective methods for teaching languages. Predicated on the belief that the classroom provides an ideal setting for language acquisition, this hallmark survey covers the tried and proven methods of the foremost authorities in the field, including Stevick, Curran, Scarcella, Terrell, Krashen, and Swain.

CONTENTS: 7 Parts. Part I: Pragmatic Orientations (Oller, Jr., Oller, Burt, Dulay, Newmark); Part II: Teacher/Individual Orientations (Asher, Kusudo, de la Torre, Gattegno, Wolkomir, Bancroft); Part III: Social/Therapeutic Orientations (Stevick, Curran, Green, Wallerstein); Part IV: Roles and Drama (Stern, di Pietro, Scarcella, Rodriguez, White); Part V: Natural Orientations (Macnamara, Terrell, Savignon, Krashen); Part VI: Fun and Games (Graham, Condon, de Berkeley-Wykes, Leong, Rinvoluceri); Part VII: Program/Experiment Reports (Asher, Kalivoda, Morain, Elkins, Johnson, Rassias, Adams, Swain, Richard-Amato). Contains a reference section and index.

496pp. / 0-88377 330-9 / Code: 7330RT
List price: $16.95 / Prepayment price: $12.70

To order, please send check or money order to dept. 31002S
(On single copy order, please add $1 to prepayment price to cover mailing and handling.)

Newbury House Publishers, Inc.
Rowley, Massachusetts 01969

the language teacher's best friend

