
EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Tenure-track position in ESL/Psycholinguistics, Ph.D., teaching experience, professional activity and publications. Applicants must qualify to teach a variety of methodology and linguistics courses crucial to our MATESL program as well as some composition. Send application, letters of reference, placement file and vita to Dr. Bryan Short, Chair, English Department, Box 6032, Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Arizona 86011.

An experienced TESL professional is needed to fill a teacher supervisor/materials coordinator position in Tokyo, Japan beginning January 1984. Applicants must be native English speakers with a B.A. degree plus certificate or M.A. in TESL and at least one year of TESL experience. Overseas living experience and fluency in at least one foreign language (not necessarily Japanese) are also required. Send resume, picture, letters of recommendation (2), and any other pertinent information to Verl Woodbury, Excellence Corporation, Palais-Blanc 303, 4 Bancho-6 Chiyoda-Ku, Tokyo 102, Japan. For more information contact: Mike Sudlow, Excellence in Education, English Language Study Center, Westminster College, 1840 South 1300 East, Salt Lake City, Utah 84105.