

AT NEWBURY HOUSE, WE PUT THEORY INTO PRACTICE

FIRST AND SECOND LANGUAGE ACQUISITION PROCESSES

Carol Wollman Pfaff, Editor

A presentation of the findings of the second European-North American Workshop on Cross-Linguistic Second Language Acquisition Research, this text bridges the gap between two related areas of research: first language acquisition and second language acquisition.

TESOL TECHNIQUES AND PROCEDURES

J. Donald Bowen, Harold Madsen & Ann Hilferty, Editors

The most comprehensive TESOL methods book to date, TESOL TECHNIQUES AND PROCEDURES provides practical information and develops basic teaching skills without prescribing a particular method.

TALKING TO LEARN

Richard Day, Editor

In the first full-length treatment of conversation and acquisition, foremost theoreticians in the field explore the role played by conversation in the teaching and acquisition of a second language.

FAR FROM HOME

William Pickett

Integrating vocabulary work with brief stories about likable people, this beginning reader helps students acquire a basic vocabulary that will enable them to read with better comprehension.

TUNE IN TONIGHT

Alexis Finger

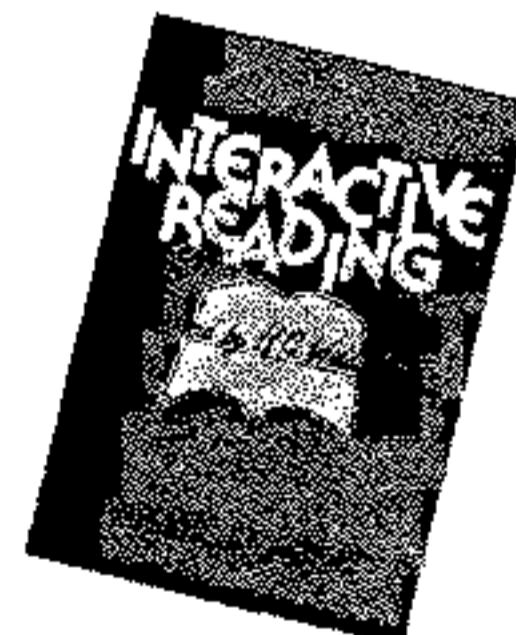

Featuring both a student text and a cassette, this intermediate to advanced program in listening comprehension focuses on authentic news broadcasts from ABC WORLD NEWS TONIGHT.

INTERACTIVE READING

Suzanne Salimbene

Treating reading as an interactive process, intermediate to advanced students apply previously acquired knowledge to what the author is trying to communicate as they develop more effective and more efficient reading habits.
