
College ESL—A New Journal

The ESL teaching community and the Office of Academic Affairs of the City University of New York announce a new scholarly journal, College ESL.

College ESL will provide a unique forum for exploring questions and concerns regarding the education of English as a second language (ESL) students, specifically urban immigrant and refugee adults in college and pre-college settings. The journal welcomes articles and essays supported by research and theory on current instructional practices in ESL and related disciplines; innovations in curriculum and pedagogy; research studies; teacher education and training; culture, history, sociology, and anthropology of ESL populations; and relevant ethical, legal, and political issues.

The first issue is scheduled for publication in fall of 1990. Submissions are due February 10, 1990. Send for guidelines to Editor, College ESL, c/o The Instructional Resource Center, The City University of New York, 535 East 80th Street, New York, New York 10021.
