As this issue of the TESL Reporter went to press, news was received of the tragic death of Ruth Crymes in an airliner crash in Mexico City. Dr. Crymes, a professor of TESL at the University of Hawaii and for many years the editor of the TESOL Quarterly, was the current president of TESOL, and the loss to the profession caused by her untimely passing will be especially great in that organization. The TESL Reporter staff extends its deepest sympathy and joins with teachers of ESL throughout the world who mourn her passing.

Manuscripts relevant to teaching English as a second language, teaching standard English as a second dialect, bilingual education, and intercultural communication may be submitted to the editor. Articles dealing with classroom aspects of teaching are especially encouraged. Manuscripts should be double spaced and typed, generally not exceeding six pages. Authors should also submit a short (less than 50 words) bio-data statement. Book reviews should be limited to two pages. Contributors are asked to give an assurance that the manuscripts they submit are not under consideration by any other journal. The opinions and statements expressed by contributors are their own and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editors or Brigham Young University-- Hawaii Campus.
